CONVENTION

The Democratic hosts are holding a real convention on the Pacific coast this week.

Senator Glass has won the important post as chairman of Resolutions Committee. The next President has not been nominated yet and no one knows, except that it will be a Democrat. Democratic policies and Democratic administration is to be endorsed, of course, and a real Democratic platform, appealing to the liberty-loving people of America will be produced. There is to be no dodging—the platform will speak out distinctly. The Wilson policy expressed in the League of Nations, with some important modifications, is sure of adoption; the wet and dry matter will be referred to Congress for modification. Bishop Cannon and others of the Anti-Saloon League will not be able to dictate to Democrats what they shall eat, drink or wear. But they are there. It can't be Democratic if it prohibits.

Mr. James N. Ellis is at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. E. Dill, here for the summer. His wife, Mrs. Ellis, is located at Atlanta, Georgia, where he has attained to eminence in his profession.

He has been here for the past week and is walking about town and seems cheerful.

Dr. George Henderlite and family have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.

H. L. Williams, here on Sunday.

He preached a sermon of much interest at Mayesville Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, a guest at the home of Mrs. Maggie P. Moore here.

Farmers are saying it is unusual thing to find four grubs of wheat in a bushel. Not many farmers are so fortunate that their wheat will be tremendous. At State river mills they have ground up all the old wheat and overhauled the machinery, ready for the new crop.
